Today is remembrance Sunday

We remember all those who gave their lives in the many conflicts that have taken place around the world so that we can live freely and in peace.

*With proud thanksgiving, a mother for her children,
England mourns for her dead across the sea.
Flesh of her flesh they were, spirit of her spirit,
Fallen in the cause of the free.*

*They went with songs to the battle, they were young,
Straight of limb, true of eye, steady and aglow.
They were staunch to the end against odds uncounted;
They fell with their faces to the foe.*

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

*As the stars that shall be bright when we are dust,
Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain;
As the stars that are starry in the time of our darkness,
To the end, to the end, they remain.*

Silence....Silence....Silence

Church is a place of silence and prayer.

So let us try to maintain the silence inside the Church, especially for 10 minutes before and after the Holy Mass. Consider others who wish to pray silently. Friendly chats can be in the porch and official talks in the Sacristy. Thank you for doing this. Fr Shanju

As this weekend marks Remembrance Day there will be a minutes silence at the beginning of both Masses to remember those killed in any conflicts.

Mass offerings for Holy Souls If you would like to have a Mass offered for your loved ones, take a Mass offering envelope and specifically mark the name and date on the front and return it to Fr Shanju with your Mass offering. NB There are no dates available in November. Please write the names of any loved ones on the paper provided and place in the box on the Altar. Do not put any money in these boxes just the names to be remembered at Mass.
